JAPAN DECLARES CHINA POLICY

THE RISING TREND IN BUSINESS SHOULD VOTE BEFORE WARNING

TOKYO—Apparently surprised by the world-wide reaction to its statement of a "hands off" China policy, the Japanese foreign office has issued a new pronouncement asserting that "Japan does not desire to interfere with China's independence, or interfere on existing treaties."

The economic index, revised for the period from January of last year to the present, was 24.3 per cent higher in the week ended April 14, than in the corresponding week of last year. Regarding the year 1928 as the base equaling 100, the index for last week was 91.3 compared with 75.7 in the same week of 1928, for the year ending March of 1933.

Bank closures in the second week of April were $305,000,000, a new high point for the present year. Bank debits for cheques cashed in branches of the chartered banks in the 32 provincial cities were $248,000,000 in March, representing 33 per cent over the same month of last year.

OTTAWA—"Call me a pacifist if you like but I would have Canadians fight no more foreign wars," Major-General A.D. McLean of Vancouver told the Senate recently urging Canada's withdrawal from the League of Nations. At the same time the former quarter-master general of the Canadian Corps suggested a plebiscite before Canada declared war.

The League of Nations had failed. Senator McLean insisted, and Canada should withdraw with it, could do so with honor. He offered a world substitute to maintain peace—discontinuance of all nations of manufacture and sale of war materials. By withdrawing from Geneva, Canada would avoid European entanglements because Canadians were unfavorable even to Downing Street in London guiding their foreign policies.

Senator Raulo Lehtinen, president of the league assembly in 1925, championed the ideals of Geneva and opposed Canada's withdrawal. The league he insisted, had not failed and today above all other days, it needed sympathy and strength. Canada owes $300,000 a year to belong to it. Europe. But it cost $130,000,000 a year on defence and personally he chose to stay on Geneva, rather than millions spent for defence.

T. group of Carbon will put on a grand concert in the Farmer's Exchange hall on Friday evening, April 27th, at 8:30 p.m. The program will consist of a three-quarter-hour play, Ping Pong, musical selections and other items, including the "Walling Warriors from Wigglesville" band.

DEVELOPMENT OF NEW TYPE OF WHEAT

A Canadian Press despatch from Edmonton states that Herman G. Treble, three times winner of the World Wheat Championship, whose efforts to produce a type of wheat that will surpass all other blends in quality, and yet meet the needs of the northern prairie farmers, has announced the development of new strains of wheat.

As a result of experiments, partly carried out on his Wembley, Alberta farm during the past season, Mr. Treble said he had produced four new strains of the new wheat, ready to be tested. There is no doubt about the milling qualities of the new wheat, Mr. Treble said. In an interview he confirmed his faith in the new strain and added it was his conviction that it was the coming variety.

First 1934 Alberta Crop Report

In sharp comparison with the spring of 1933, which was unusually late to start snowfall, the spring of 1934 saw wheat in the hands of the farmer at a comparatively early date, the season being left open for the farmer to sow the southern and western districts this year, most farmers were at work upon the land during the first week in April. In central and northern districts this year, most farmers were at work upon the land during the first week in April. Police Barracks Will be Retained

While it has been rumored for some weeks that the local barracks of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police was to be closed, nothing definite had been known until lately, when it was learned that the Carbon detachment was to be closed and the officer in charge moved to Three Hills.

When definite word was received a number of the business men of town delegated themselves to try to have a police officer retained here. Last week they interviewed one of the officials at the local barracks, but apparently the move has been decided upon and nothing could be done to have a RCMP officer retained here. When this arrangement one of the townspeople got in touch with higher authorities and incidentally with some success. The commission in charge had been ordered to have the 'cell' removed from the local barracks and with hammer and cold chisel the work proceeded. Later word was received that the jail was to be re-erected, and from this information we gather that the local detachment will remain open for a time at least.

LOSSES APPEAL ON LIQUOR CASE

Appeal of Albert Besse of near Bow, from conviction by Victor E. Hawkins, Justice of the Peace, on a charge of keeping intoxicating liquor not obtained from the liquor vendor, was dismissed by Judge V.A. Macdonald on Monday. Besse will have to pay $300 or go to jail for three months. Besse's house was searched by two RCMP constables and two bottles were found containing a liquid which the constables said were moonshine. Besse denied that he pleaded guilty to the charge at his trial, but Hawkins declared on the witness stand that he had said "guilty" Besse declared that all he would ask to be paid was $100 that he is a liquor and it came from his house. I guess I am responsible for my own.

Besse was indicted during the hearing of the appeal that the liquor had been "planted" in his house although he said he would not make any charges because he had no proof. Judge Macdonald said he could not credit the accused's story that he did not know how the bottles came to be in his house and expressed the belief that the liquor was undoubtedly what was "popularly known as moonshine."

THE "I SAW" COLUMN
I SAW J.P. Oulhauser and Paul Schepke both assisted by Ed and Raul Oulhauser, have setting up a little corner recently purchased by the latter. Bill Reid was supervising the job. Freeder moved to the Appleyard driving past this office in his sedan bearing one of those nine dollar licenses. Randy Bird wearing a red coat and a hat, was driving a Fordy Bessons garden, with Pyrothe busy working in the fertilizer.

SECOND COURSE TRAVELLING TO BE PROVINCIAL PROGRAM

EDMONTON—Practically every dollar of the $200,000 voted by the legislature at the recent session for capital expenditure on highways will be devoted to second course travelling, according to Hon. O.L. McPherson, minister of public works.

Asked for details regarding the highway program for the year, the minister indicated it would not be a very heavy program as the money available was not great.

However it was felt that with hundreds of miles of highway on which there has been only first course graveling done, the available capital outlay this year should be spent on second course work.

Just what sections of the highways will receive this gravel is not yet decided. The minister stated that plans probably would not be completed until the announcement of the Dominion government works program. An estimate is expected almost anytime. It is probable that some of the highway work will be included in this plan.
